Hey Drew,

Here's my idea for the Range suite at Confluence. I have a total dollar amount of $48935.02 AND a Second Year warranty 😊. Give me a call tomorrow and I'll explain the buildup.

Very Purty David!!!

Please don't kill me... One more edit. Can you change out the V36SD riser to another V36RR? This way they will match up.

Also, Drew is very worried about the BTU draw so, we will not be interconnecting the gas on the Salamander. It will be on a separate 3/4" gas line.

Thanks,

Rich
