David,

Scopos would like to see this NEW project TWO WAYS, if possible:

Example A) HD Range lineup with Overlapping components (L to R)

1. V4B24 and VCB24 on a VSC48 (S-Grates on the OTB)
2. VFRY18
3. VWT06B - Spreader
4. V6B36C with S Grates – Pot Filler centered over the range
5. VICM48 over the range and the end cabinet (shown here over the fryer – move it over to the right)
6. Custom Cabinets:
 - a. Each side is 24" Deep
 - b. Open Shelving
 - c. Include a soup well on the RH Side.
4. FRTTOP-108WLD 108" Common Front top ledge

Example B) Counterline equipment, stand-alone (L to R)

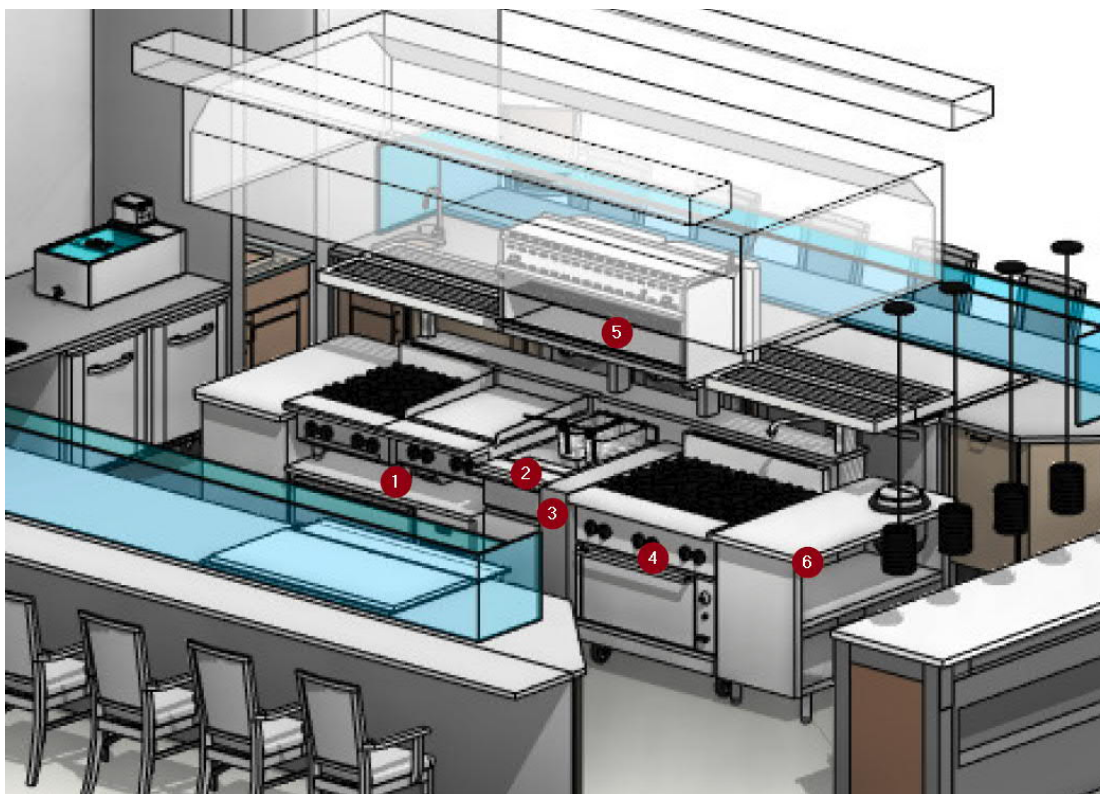

1. V4B24 on 4" high legs and S Grates / VACB25 / on an ARS48
2. 1TR48A
3. VWT06B
4. V6B36C with S Grates – Pot Filler centered over the range
5. VICM48 over the range and the end cabinet (shown here over the fryer – move it over to the right)
6. Custom Cabinets:
 - a. Each side is 24" Deep
 - b. Open Shelving
 - c. Include a soup well on the RH Side.

Please let me know if you have any questions!

ALTERNATIVE LINEUP

Verify what equipment they would like as alternative counterline equipment:

1. VHP424 (Verify stand-alone model)
2. VACB25 (Verify stand-alone model)
3. ARS48 (Verify self-contained or remote)
4. 1GR45 (Verify stand-alone model)
5. VWT06B (Verify - the only spreader we have is HD – is that ok?)
6. 36S-6BN (Verify stand-alone model) (Standard or Convection?)
7. VICM48 (The same mounting issues exist with this lineup. Verify how they want to proceed.)
8. Custom Cabinets (What are the dims?)

Thank you,

Alternates: the range will still be HD with S grates and the vwt can mount on it with convection base
 Charbroiler use a vacb
 Fryer use a 1tr45a
 Self contained refrig.

What about the Alternative equipment list? Specifically, if using counterline equipment:

1. S Grates are not available on counterline equipment. Will this be ok?
2. What Charbroiler model?
3. What Fryer Model
4. Is the HD spreader ok?
5. 36C-6BN – do we want Endurance, or keep HD?

Thanks Phyllis!

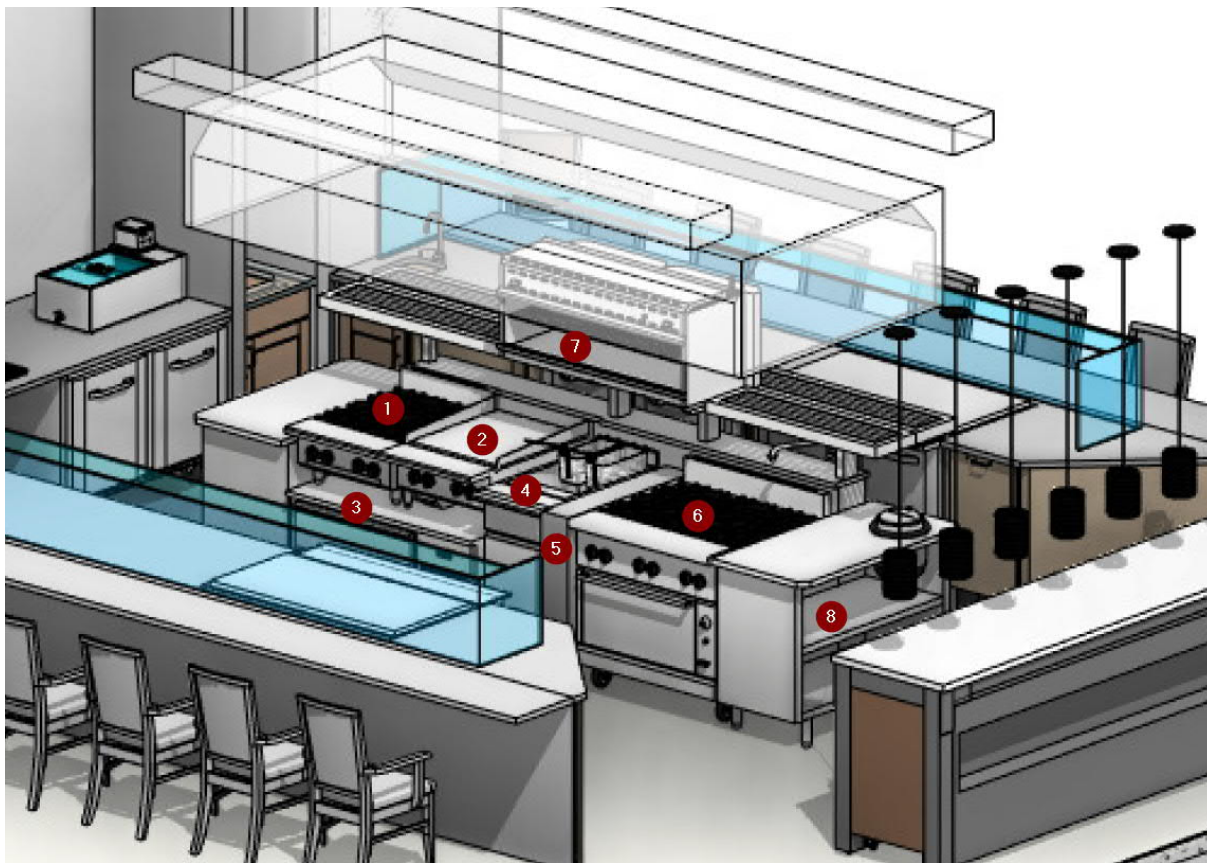

Are they able to supply an equipment spec description? Without it, I have a few questions on both the "HD" equipment and the "Alternative Lineup":

Here is what I have for HD Left to Right:

1. V4B24
2. VCB18
3. VSC48
 - a. Self-Contained or Remote? Self contained
2. VFRY18
3. VWT06B
4. V6B36S or C
 - a. Standard or Convection? Convection and S grates
 - b. It looks like there is a pot filler over the range – please verify. yes
 - i. I can move it right and have it hanged over the range and the end cabinet. Let me know if this is what they want. This works
3. VICM48
 - a. I cannot mount this over the fryer or the charbroiler.
 - b. What size? 48"
3. Custom Cabinets
 - a. What size/dimensions? 2' each and yes a soup well, I can move plan S a bit

Overlapping 108" Common Front top ledge, ok? yes

Alternates: the range will still be HD with S grates and the vwt can mount on it with convection base

So I spoke to Michael Fenske about this project, per our conversation:

4 burner and CHARBROILER (not griddle) on top of chef base, fryer, space, range with cheesemelter centered, 2 end cabinets, back, and the access panel in the rear
Can we draw this as both HD line complete with front, and counter top line with each sliding into a frame?

I reattached the drawings to make life easier for all
